

I love the option of listening to both the local radio programming and the variety XM radio offers. I would hate to see any form of regulation that would inhibit the other from improving or promoting the product they deliver, as long as legal and not offensive. We urge you to reject NAB's petition 04=160